Finding Company History in Mergent Archives & Mergent Online

Table of Contents
Mergent Archives .............................................................................................................. 2
Mergent Online ..................................................................................................................... 4

(Click the above headings to be taken to relevant section)
Mergent Archives

Mergent Archives provides historical annual reports and other filing types for Canadian, U.S. and international companies from the early 1900s.

1. Click on this link to access Mergent Archives.

2. If you are off-campus, you will be prompted to enter your Passport York ID.

3. This will take you to the homepage of Mergent Archives.

4. Click on Search Mergent Archives on the right hand side of the screen.

5. You will be taken to the search page.
6. Type Alcan into the Company Name search box as a search example and click on Alcan Inc from the list of names suggested by the database.

7. On the results page, click on the PDF icon to open any documents you are interested in.

8. You can use the arrows in the left corner to navigate through your results. Mergent Archives will list the reports in order of newest to oldest.
Mergent Online

Mergent Online provides corporate and financial data for Canadian, U.S., and international publicly-traded companies. It also includes a useful Company History tab in its company reports that give you a brief overview of a publicly-traded company’s major milestones over a period of years.

1. Click on this link to access Mergent Online.
2. If you are off-campus, you will be prompted to enter your Passport York ID.
3. This will take you to the homepage of Mergent Online.

4. Type in Alcan in the Company Search field, and select Alcan Inc. from the list of suggested names.
5. You will now be taken to the company’s profile page. Click on the History tab of the report.

6. Click on the << or >> to navigate through the different years.